SPEAKERS

- NIEN CHENG The courageous and wise Nien Cheng, is the survivor of six and one-half years of imprisonment and torture under the regime of the Red Guard during China's Cultural Revolution beginning in 1966. Her best selling book, Life and Death in Shanghai describes her courage and strength, dignity and pain as she overcame the isolation and punishment resulting from illogic and a willful disregard for the truth. Madame Cheng resides in Washington, DC.
- DR. SALLY ROESCH WAGNER Sally will this year portray Alice Pickler, early suffragist. Dr. Wagner is a feminist scholar and activist, founder of one of the nation's earliest Women's Studies Programs and recipient of the first Ph.D. in Women's Studies. Dr. Wagner's book, Daughters of Dakota is her newest release.
- DR. CAROL WOLFE KONEK Assistant Dean of the College of Liberal Arts, an assistant professor and one of the founders of Women's Studies at Wichita State University, Carol Konek was selected 1989 Woman of the Year at Wichita's Womanfair XII. As a feminist scholar, author of books on chemical dependencies, and the world peace movement, Carol brings a wealth of experience and knowledge to her topics. Carol has attended Women's Peace Movement meetings in Amsterdam, Mexico City, Dublin and Illinois.

WORKSHOPS

- Pre-Conference Workshop: Friday, April 6, 1:00 - 4:00 p.m. Santa Fe Room, DCCC. Journal Writing - Dr. Sally Roesch Wagner. At the 1989 Conference, we vowed to provide a more in-depth workshop on journal writing this year. Dr. Wagner will teach the workshop that begins where the previous workshop leaves off. Participants will work together in constructing a plan for the on-going creation of their personal archives.

SATURDAY CONFERENCE WORKSHOPS:

(Each workshop presented twice)

- Women and Addictions - Judy Weber, Charter Hospital Chemical Dependency Director, Kansas City. Not all addictions are of a chemical nature. Find out the risks to yourself and to those you love, and how to beat the odds.
- Health Issues - Jayne Hansen, R.N. Humana Hospital, Dodge City & Debbie Kennedy, Dodge City. Enjoy life, be FIT! Learn how to be fit physically, mentally, emotionally.

- Franklin Time Control System - Dee McKee, Ford County Commissioner, Dodge City. Make your minutes count as you explore this system and others that help organize your life.
- It's a Man's World, but I'm a Superintendent Anyway! - Jean Lavid, Brewster, Kansas Superintendent of Schools. Super Moms, stress, job overload—trying to juggle too many hats? This workshop should ease the pain.
- Personal Assessment Testing - Nancy Thomas, ACSW, LSCSW, Mental Health Affiliates, Dodge City. A fun way to assess your personality and how you can best live and work with others with different personality traits.
- Parenting: The Co-Dependency Factor - Ron Leupp, ACSW, LSCSW, Mental Health Affiliates, Dodge City. Examine parenting impairment that remains in a maze of how we were parented and alternatives for change.
- Self-Affirmation is not Selfishness - Dr. Carol Konek, WSU Asst. Dean, School of Liberal Arts. Kick the subliminal messages we have stored about who we are, what we are and what we should be! Self-affirmation rewards you and all around you.
- Celebration of Women's Wit & Wisdom - Dr. Sally Roesch Wagner. "Gossip", "old wives' tales" are labels attached to women's conventional wisdom. Celebrate the accumulated knowledge of women's wisdom and skills seldom honored in museums, galleries or classrooms.
- Financial Well-Being Panel - Banking - Ann Frigon, Trust Dept. Fidelity State Bank; Insurance - Marsha Morrison, Agent, Don Luallen Insurance; Budget Rules - Janice Mai, Personal Investments, First National Bank. All the questions you ever wanted answered, but were afraid to ask the male counterpart of our financial institutions!
- Entrepreneurship - Arleen Banowetz, Center for Entrepreneurship, WSU. Takes a look at the steps and resources needed to start a small business with an emphasis on women's business ownership.
- Crisis Proofing Panel - Jane Cooper, Moderator, Diaconal Minister, First United Methodist Church; Margaret Lacy, Assoc. Pastor, Presbyterian Church; Debbie Wilson, Atty., Patton & Kerbs Law Firm. What to do in times of crisis, death, custody problems, divorce, emotional trauma... Where to turn.
- 2nd Chances/Starting Over - Carolyn Brozek, Director, Senior Employment, Wichita Burned out? In a rut? What would it take to start a new direction? Explore all of your options!

• Call for stories or letters about, from or to women who lived in Southwestern Kansas before the turn of the century. Bring the stories with you to the Women's Conference. We plan to submit them to a Kansas playwright to use in writing a play for the 1991 Women's Conference! If your stories/letters are chosen to be included, you will be donating the use of them to DCCC for use in the play and for possible publication and reprinting.

Performance following Conference:

• Austin on Tap - April 7, 8:00 p.m.

Tickets $10, adults and $8, students. This concert is available to Women's Conference attendees with advance reservations. Ticket price includes admittance to a dance workshop by the cast.
